

A day of singing, dancing and games

Team effort: Emily Green, 10, (in yellow) joins in the fun day with the other children at Russell Vale Community Hall.

Picture: ADAM McLEAN

NICOLE JOHNSTONE

ALL things frosty was the theme of Dragonfly Parties' fun day at Russell Vale Community Hall on Thursday.

In conjunction with dance school Freedom Dance Force, children aged five to 10 dressed up as their favourite character for a "cool" day of singing, dancing and games.

Dragonfly Parties' owner Brinie Scheen said the day was a success.

"We ran multiple games, which kept the kids active, as well as creative workshops," she said.

Emily Green, 10, was one of many excited children who attended the fun day.

"I really liked meeting people and dancing to the songs," she said. "It was a lot of fun."